

Octoberfest at the Inn at Cedar Falls

9/8/2011 2:01 AM EDT Tags: wine, Hocking, Hills, Cedar, Falls, Ohio

By Dr. Anton Anderssen

The Inn at Cedar Falls announces their second annual Wine and Beer Fest, October 1 from 2-5pm. This is the perfect opportunity to test their incredible selection of wines and beers. Come test and taste any of five varieties of wines and beers for $20/person. Join Matthew from Rockmill Brewery and wine expert Steve Gifford. Light appetizers include artisanal cheeses, fruits, gravlox and tapenade with crostini and flatbreads. Live entertainment from Gerard Shay and his band will brighten any day with their fun and spirited bluegrass tunes.

The Inn at Cedar Falls is not only a romantic inn with tons of charm, the food and wine is out of this world. Their chefs come from world-class backgrounds, and food is produced locally. The inn draws from resources on property, like flavored honey from their apiary, lavender, bouquets of aromatic herbs, and spirits distilled locally. On a scale of one to twelve roses, dining at Inn at Cedar Falls is a baker's dozen.

Before dinner, try one of their luxurious couples' massages for an experience of a lifetime. This little hideaway has a stupendous spa, charming rooms, cozy cabins, and glorious dining. This summer, the innkeepers created a rooftop tranquility garden with aromatic herbs and delicate flowers, with comfortable pendant chairs to enjoy its beauty.

With fall quickly approaching, the region is ablaze in color; this is the heart of the Hocking Hills park system. The Inn at Cedar Falls is an experience you'll love and cherish.

Photos by Marco Airaghi (Click on photos for detail)

